Parent / Carer Questionnaire Feedback

Many thanks for all of the responses to our questionnaires. We had a 73% return. We take the responses very seriously and your feedback will inform future planning for the school. Please find below a summary of the feedback written on the questionnaires.

Things that people liked:

- Parent information is excellent
- Communication between staff and parents / carers including home-school books
- Holistic support for children and families from all staff including the schools Family Support Worker; makes the whole family feel part of the school community
- Mums Group; the chance to meet up with other mums for activities and meetings
- Siblings Support Group
- Parenting workshops ( all areas of health and education covered) and courses and opportunities to be in school ~ great variety available
- Website and photos of children
- Dedication and hard work of all staff and how well staff understand and respond to pupils' needs plus staff knowledge/expertise
- Staff all want the best for the children
- All levels of staff are extremely approachable, friendly, caring and welcoming
- Excellent curriculum and creative / wide range of activities that the children participate in
- Children are happy and look forwards to going to school
- School facilities; indoors and outdoors; providing opportunities for children to be in / out for their learning
- Range of experiences that the children have; including educational visits, residential in Y6, swimming lessons etc; 'there's always something going on'
- Excellent progress that the children make and how each child is valued as an individual

Things that we can improve or new ideas:

Events/Workshop ideas for next year

- Talks by families with young people who are older with ASD ~ opportunity to hear about their life experiences and successes. The workshop held this year was really well received.
- Ways to support siblings
- Family Therapy
- Anxiety in children
- Workshops to have later start at 10:00 to allow travel time or be offered after school
- Self-help skill development
- Toileting
- Fussy eaters

Homework

If you would like more tasks/ activities for your child please see your class teacher and this will be provided. Also please make sure you complete the Homework Form to indicate this in September when you are provided with different options for home activities (or not).

Possibility of breakfast club

This has not been something that we have provided due to the number of children who are transported to school by bus. This may be something that we could consult on in the future to see if there would be a demand and also to see how this could be staffed / cost per place.
