

The Queen

The Army

The Police

The People

The Queen?

The Police?

The Army?

The People?

... look after the public and keep them safe. They make sure the country's laws are followed by the people.

... protect our country and deter other countries from invading our country

... protect our country and deter other

... vote in elections to decide who represents them to be part of the government who rules the country.

... is officially our 'Head of State' but no longer has any power to make political decisions

Why do we say that 'the people' rule our country

---

---

---

---

What special rules or laws would you like to make if you were elected to be part of the school council? Think about how you could change our school!

---

---

---

---

What special rules or laws would you like to make if you were elected to be part of the government.

---

---

---